Date:19.04.2020

ESTT. OFFICE ORDER No. 19/2020

Whereas the Union Home Secretary, GOI, MHA Order No. 40-3/2020-DM-1(A) dated 14.04.2020 has extended lockdown up to 03.05.2020 for containment of the spread of COVID-19 in our country, and vide Order of same number dated 15.04.2020 issued consolidated revised guidelines for implementation of lockdown measures, and the DoR/CBIC has issued Order No.C.50/30/2020 – Ad.II dated 15.04.2020 and the Chief Secretary, Government of Maharashtra (GoM) has issued further Order No. DMU/2020/CR.92/DisM-1 dated 17.04.2020 with directions for the strict implementation of the consolidated revised guidelines and these Orders, in para 12 thereof allow operations of seaports for cargo transport, including authorized custom clearing and forwarding agents, in para 14 establishments are allowed to operate that are warehousing services, including at ports and in para 18 the offices of the GOI/its subordinate Offices being the Customs are to function but with barest minimum from 20.04.2020, and subject to the safeguards laid out.

2. In keeping with and in pursuance of the above Orders and on basis of identifying the critical and essential functions from the perspective of the operational role of the Customs in the above aspects in present conditions, it has been decided that the officers/staff as are specified in Annexure A, B, C, D and E with this Estt. Order shall present themselves in the workplace/office on the respective dates mentioned therein during the period 20.04.2020 to 03.05.2020. In addition, the officers/staff that are already working in sections under respective Shifts Rosters system shall continue to follow those respective Shift Rosters.

3. The entire rest of the officers/staff (who are not attending the work place/office on the dates other than mentioned against their names in Annexures A to E above) of the level up to Dy/Asst. Commissioner shall work from home during this period. For this, they are also required to be available on telephone and with electronic means of communication from the home. They shall also attend to/complete the tasks that can be attended from the home keeping in view the attitude that when they return to the work place/office a substantive part of the work stands attended to and thereby any kinds of backlogs are avoided. It should be clearly understood that such individuals are to comply the norms set by the local Administrations during the period and that such expectations are taken as part and parcel of the Conduct Rules. These officers/staff members should note that they could be required to attend the work place/office, as and when an exigency of work arises and they are called on this account.

4. The Additional/Joint Commissioners in charge of each Section/branches of work will closely monitor the Customs functioning in office as well as the Docks/CFS and keep in consultation with the Commissioners. The monitoring includes that of tasks given to officers/staff who are being required to work from home. It should be kept in view and ensured that Customs functioning remains smooth and for this any upcoming events and work trends should be keenly observed so that the functioning requirement continues to be met with suitable adjustments as necessary, within the barest minimum personnel referred in para 3 above. If the exigency arises for recalling a particular officer/staff to work place/office on account of re-calibrating in light of such increases in operational requirement as dictated by requirement to keep cargo moving, it may be done by the Addl/Jt. Commissioner only after obtaining the advice of the Commissioner to this effect.

5. Every person who is required to attend the work place/office is duty bound to personally ensure her/his own preventive/safety measures and social distancing norms, as well as that of the other person, which includes their to and fro, seating, standing, handling, restriction on number being together in vicinity or in queue or during breaks etc. These aspects are to be strictly and invariably complied as prescribed in the Guidelines.
6. If there are officers/staff that are covered in point 9 of the Annexure I of the GOI/GoM Guidelines, they may intimate the existence of relevant factors to their Dy/Asst. Commissioners. If alternate arrangement for their substitution is possible to be able to allow such individuals to work from home, it would be given effect to only by way of further Estt Order(s), however in the interim, the Para 3 orders as above be taken to prevail.
7. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if in terms of para 20 of the GOI/GoM Orders an officer/staff member has been directed by health care personnel to remain under strict home/institution quarantine he or she is directed to remain under such quarantine till the period as is decided by the health authorities, such officer/staff member shall comply with such directions and remain under the mandatory quarantine.
8. This is issued in consultation with and with the approval of the Commissioners of Customs, General/Export, NS-I/Audit, NS-III and NS-V, JNCH, Nhava- Sheva. This supersedes previous orders.
