The proceeding of the present case emanate out of Show Cause Notice No. 1263/2024-25/AC/Gr.II(HK)/NS-I/CAC/JNCH dated 15.10.2024 issued vide File No. S/26-SCN-82/2024-25/Gr.II (H-K)/JNCH by the Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Gr. II(H-K), Office of the Commissioner of Customs, JNCH, NhavaSheva, Taluka-Uran, District -Raigad, Maharashtra-400707 to M/s. Paradise Impex(IEC:BQFPS5217P). The brief facts of the case are as follows:

BRIEF FACTS OF THE CASE

M/s. Paradise Impex(IEC:BQFPS5217P) having address at 'Mohd Miya Umar Miya Compound, Room No. 16, Shivaji Nagar, Jogeshwari East, Mumbai Maharashtra-400060 (hereinafter referred to as 'the importer') had cleared their imported items as per Table-A (hereinafter referred to as 'the subject goods') vide Bill of Entry No. 5500409 dated 31.10.2019 as mentioned in Table-A, by classifying the same under CTH- 4016. The IGST paid on the said item was 12% as per Serial No. 85A of Schedule- II of Notification No. 01/2017- Integrated Tax (Rate) dt. 28.06.2017.

BE No. /Date	Invoice No./Item Sr No	Description	Assessable value	Duty paid	Differential duty
5500409/ 31.10.2019	1/24	Wrist Band	13,806	3,358	920

2. The appropriate IGST on the subject item is 18% as per Sr. No. 123A of Schedule III of Notification No. 01/2017. The relevant part of the Notification No. 01/2017 is as under:

IGST Schedule	Schedule Sr. No	Description
I-191	4016	Erasers
II-85A	4016	Rubber Bands
III-123A	4016	Other articles of vulcanised rubber other than hard rubber (other than erasers, rubber bands)

3. From the description of the goods declared in the respective Bills of Entry (As per Table-A), it is seen that the goods in question are not eligible for IGST payment @18% under Sr. No. 85A of Schedule-II of IGST Notification No. 01/2017 Integrated Tax (Rate) dated 28.06.2017 as amended vide Notification No. 27/2017 I.T (Rate) dated 22.09.2017 and Notification No. 43/2017 I.T (Rate) dated 14.11.2017 , which clearly & specifically is allowed for "Rubber Bands" only. Therefore, the goods imported by you attracts levy of IGST @18% under Sr. No. 123A of Schedule-III of Notification No. 01/2017. The details of description of goods, Bills of Entry, applicability of correct IGST amount, are as per Annexure-A to the SCN.

4. On comparing both the entries and rates as mentioned above it is noticed that IGST @ 12% is applicable only to Rubber Bands. All other items except Erasers imported under CTH-4016 attract IGST @18%. Hence, it appears that the importer had wilfully mis-declared the subject goods by way wrong IGST Schedule for the purpose of importing the same, declaring IGST @12% as per Sr. No. 85A of Schedule-II instead of 18% as per Sr. No. 123A of Schedule-III of IGST Notification No. 01/2017-Integrated Tax (Rate) dated 28.06.2017 thereby paying lower duty than applicable and thus the provisions of Section 28 (4) are invokable in this case.

5. Accordingly, a Consultative Letter No. 721/23-24 issued vide F. No. S/2-Audit-Gen-33/2023-24/JNCH/E2 (CL No. 721/23-24 dated 29.12.2023) was issued to the importer for payment of short levied duty along with applicable interest and penalty. Vide the aforementioned Consultative letter, the Importer was advised to pay the Differential IGST along with interest and penalty in terms of Section 28(4) of the Customs Act 1962. The importer was further advised to avail the benefit of lower penalty in terms of Section 28(5) of the Customs Act, 1962, by early payment of short paid IGST duty and interest along with penalty @15%. The Consultative letter was issued considering the Pre-Notice Consultation Regulations, 2018. However, the Importer has not responded till date.

6. Relevant Legal Provisions: After the introduction of self-assessment vide Finance Act, 2011, the onus is on the Importer to make true and correct declaration in all aspects including Classification and calculation of duty, but in the instant case the subject goods have been mis-classified and IGST amount has not been paid correctly.

7. Relevant legal provisions for recovery of duty that appears to be evaded are reproduced here for the sake of brevity which are applicable in this instant case:

7.1 Section 17(1) Assessment of duty, reads as:

An importer entering any imported goods under section 46, or an exporter entering any export goods under section 50, shall, save as otherwise provided in section 85, self-assess the duty, if any, leviable on such goods.

7.2 Section 28 (Recovery of duties not levied or not paid or short-levied or short-paid or erroneously refunded) reads as:

(4) Where any duty has not been levied or not paid or has been short-levied or short-paid or erroneously refunded, or interest payable has not been paid, part-paid or erroneously refunded, by reason of,-

(a) collusion; or

(b) any wilful mis-statement; or

(c) suppression of facts,

by the importer or the exporter or the agent or employee of the importer or exporter, the proper officer shall, within five years from the relevant date, serve notice on the person chargeable with duty or interest which has not been so levied or not paid or which has been so short-levied or short-paid or to whom the refund has erroneously been made, requiring him to show cause why he should not pay the amount specified in the notice.

(5) Where any duty has not been levied or not paid or has been short-levied or short paid or the interest has not been charged or has been part-paid or the duty or interest has been erroneously refunded by reason of collusion or any wilful mis-statement or suppression of facts by the importer or the exporter or the agent or the employee of the importer or the exporter, to whom a notice has been served under sub-section (4) by the proper officer, such person may pay the duty in full or in part, as may be accepted by him, and the interest payable thereon under section 28AA and the penalty equal to fifteen per cent of the duty specified in the notice or the duty so accepted by that person, within thirty days of the receipt of the notice and inform the proper officer of such payment in writing.

(6) Where the importer or the exporter or the agent or the employee of the importer or the exporter, as the case may be, has paid duty with interest and penalty under sub-section (5), the proper officer shall determine the amount of duty or interest and on determination, if the proper officer is of the opinion-

(i) that the duty with interest and penalty has been paid in full, then, the proceedings in respect of such person or other persons to whom the notice is served under sub-section (1) or sub-section (4), shall, without prejudice to the provisions of sections 135, 135A and 140 be deemed to be conclusive as to the matters stated therein; or

(ii) that the duty with interest and penalty that has been paid falls short of the amount actually payable, then, the proper officer shall proceed to issue the notice as provided for in clause (a) of sub-section (1) in respect of such amount which falls short of the amount actually payable in the manner specified under that sub-section and the period of two years shall be computed from the date of receipt of information under sub-section (5).

7.3 Section 28AA- Interest on delayed payment of duty

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any judgment, decree, order or direction of any court, Appellate Tribunal or any authority or in any other provision of this Act or the rules made thereunder, the person, who is liable to pay duty in accordance with the provisions of section 28, shall, in addition to such duty, be liable to pay interest, if any, at the rate fixed under sub-section (2), whether such payment is made voluntarily or after determination of the duty under that section.

(2) Interest, at such rate not below ten per cent. and not exceeding thirty-six per cent. per annum, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix, shall be paid by the person liable to pay duty in terms of section 28 and such interest shall be calculated from the first day of the month succeeding the month in which the duty ought to have been paid or from the date of such erroneous refund, as the case may be, up to the date of payment of such duty.

7.4 SECTION 46. Entry of goods on importation, subsection 46(4) reads as:

(4) The importer while presenting a bill of entry shall make and subscribe to a declaration as to the truth of the contents of such bill of entry and shall, in support of such declaration, produce to the proper officer the invoice, if any, and such other documents relating to the imported goods as may be prescribed.

7.5 Section 111 (Confiscation of improperly imported goods etc.) reads as: The following goods brought from a place outside India shall be liable to confiscation
(m) Any goods which do not correspond in respect of value or in any other particular with the entry made under this Act.....;

7.6 Section 112 (Penalty for improper importation of goods etc.) reads as:

“Any person-

(a) who in relation to any goods does or omits to do any act which act or omission would render such goods liable to confiscation under Section 111, or abets the doing or omission of such an act shall be liable, -

(i) in the case of goods in respect of which any prohibition is in force under this Act or any other law for the time being in force, to a penalty not exceeding the value of the goods or five thousand rupees, whichever is greater;

(ii) in the case of dutiable goods, other than prohibited goods, subject to the provisions of Section 114A, to a penalty not exceeding ten percent of the duty sought to be evaded or five thousand rupees, whichever is higher.....”

7.7 Section 114A- Penalty for short-levy or non-levy of duty in certain cases. –

Where the duty has not been levied or has been short-levied or the interest has not been charged or paid or has been part paid or the duty or interest has been erroneously refunded by reason of collusion or any wilful mis-statement or suppression of facts, the person who is liable to pay the duty or interest, as the case may be, as determined under sub-section (8) of section 28 shall also be liable to pay a penalty equal to the duty or interest so determined:

Provided that where such duty or interest, as the case may be, as determined under sub-section (8) of section 28, and the interest payable thereon under section 28AA, is paid within thirty days from the date of the communication of the order of the proper officer determining such duty, the amount of penalty liable to be paid by such person under this section shall be twenty-five per cent of the duty or interest, as the case may be, so determined:

Provided further that the benefit of reduced penalty under the first proviso shall be available subject to the condition that the amount of penalty so determined has also been paid within the period of thirty days referred to in that proviso:

Provided also that where the duty or interest determined to be payable is reduced or increased by the Commissioner (Appeals), the Appellate Tribunal or, as the case may be, the court, then, for the purposes of this section, the duty or interest as reduced or increased, as the case may be, shall be taken into account:

Provided also that in case where the duty or interest determined to be payable is increased by the Commissioner (Appeals), the Appellate Tribunal or, as the case may be, the court, then, the benefit of reduced penalty under the first proviso shall be available if the amount of the duty or the interest so increased, along with the interest payable thereon under section 28AA, and twenty-five percent of the consequential increase in penalty have also been paid within thirty days of the communication of the order by which such increase in the duty or interest takes effect:

Provided also that where any penalty has been levied under this section, no penalty shall be levied under section 112 or section 114.

Explanation. - For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that -

(i) the provisions of this section shall also apply to cases in which the order determining the duty or interest under sub-section (8) of section 28 relates to notices issued prior to the date on which the Finance Act, 2000 receives the assent of the President;

(ii) any amount paid to the credit of the Central Government prior to the date of communication of the order referred to in the first proviso or the fourth proviso shall be adjusted against the total amount due from such person.

7.8 Section 117. Penalties for contravention, etc., not expressly mentioned. - Any person who contravenes any provision of this Act or abets any such contravention or who fails to comply with any provision of this Act with which it was his duty to comply, where no express penalty is elsewhere provided for such contravention or failure, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one lakh rupees.

8. Acts of omission and commission by the Importer:

8.1 As per section 17(1) of the Act, "An Importer entering any imported goods under section 46, shall, save as otherwise provided in section 85, self-assess the duty, if any, leviable on such goods." Thus, in this case the importer had self-assessed the Bills of Entry and appears to have Short levy of IGST due to wrong selection of IGST Schedule. As the importer got monetary benefit due to said act, it is apparent that the same was done deliberately by wilful mis-classification of the said goods in the Bills of Entry during self-assessment. Therefore, differential duty is recoverable from the importer under Section 28(4) of the Customs Act, 1962 along with applicable interest as per Section 28AA of the said Act.

8.2 It appears that the Importer has given a declaration under section 46(4) of the Act, for the truthfulness of the content submitted at the time of filing Bill of Entry. However, the applicable IGST rate on the subject goods was not paid by the Importer at the time of clearance of goods. It also appears that the Importer has submitted a false declaration under section 46(4) of the Act. By the act of presenting goods in contravention to the provisions of section 111(m), it appears that the Importer has rendered the subject goods liable for confiscation under section 111(m) of the Act. For the above act of deliberate omission and commission that rendered the goods liable to confiscation. Accordingly, the Importer also appears liable to penal action under Section 112 (a) and /or 114 A and of the Customs Act, 1962.

9. From the foregoing, it appears that the Importer have wilfully mis-classification the goods; that the Importer have submitted a false declaration under section 46(4) of the said Act. Due to this act of omission of Importer, there has been loss to the government exchequer equal to the differential duty.

10. Therefore, in terms of Section 124 read with Section 28(4) of the Customs Act, 1962 M/s. Paradise Impex(IEC:BQFPS5217P) was hereby called upon to show cause to the Assistant Commissioner, Gr-2(H-K), JNCH, Nhava Sheva, Taluka- Uran, District- Raigad, Maharashtra- 400707, within 30 days of the receipt of the notice, as to why:

- i. The IGST rate claimed under Schedule-II, Sr. No. 85A of IGST levy Notification No. 01/2017-Integrated Tax (Rate) dated 28.06.2017 for the subject goods should not be rejected and IGST rate under Schedule III, Sr. No. 123A of said notification should not be levied.
- ii. Differential IGST amount of Rs. 920/- (Rupees Nine Hundred Twenty Only) with respect to the items covered under Bill of entry as mentioned in Table A to this notice should not be demanded under Section 28 (4) of the Customs Act, 1962 along with applicable interest as per Section 28AA of the Customs Act, 1962.
- iii. The subject goods as detailed in Table-A to this notice having a total assessable value of Rs. 13806/- (Rupees Thirteen Thousand Eight Hundred Six Only) should not be held liable for confiscation under Section 111(m) of the Customs Act, 1962.
- iv. Penalty on the duty should not be recovered under the provisions of section 28(5) of the Customs Act, 1962.
- v. Penalty should not be imposed on the under Section 112(A), 114(A) & 117 of the Customs Act, 1962.

DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, contents of the Show Cause Notice issued under Section 28 read with Section 124 of the Customs Act, 1962, the import documents such as Bill of Entry, invoice, description of goods, and other available records. The issue for consideration is whether the importer M/s. Paradise Impex has short-paid IGST by classifying the imported goods viz. "Wrist Band" under CTH 4016 and availing IGST rate @12% under Sr. No. 85A of Schedule-II of Notification No. 01/2017-Integrated Tax (Rate) dated 28.06.2017, instead of the correct rate @18% under Sr. No. 123A of Schedule-III of the same Notification.

11. From the records, it is seen that the importer had cleared the goods "Wrist Band" vide Bill of Entry No. 5500409 dated 31.10.2019 by self-assessing the duty. The goods were declared under CTH 4016, and IGST @12% was paid by invoking Sr. No. 85A of Schedule-II applicable to "Rubber Bands." On examination of the product description, it is evident that the item imported, namely "Wrist Band," cannot be considered as a "Rubber Band." The description under Sr. No. 85A specifically covers "Rubber Bands" and not other articles of vulcanised rubber. The product in question is more appropriately covered under Sr. No. 123A of Schedule-III of Notification No. 01/2017-Integrated Tax (Rate) dated 28.06.2017 as "Other articles of vulcanised rubber other than hard rubber (other than erasers and rubber bands)", attracting IGST @18%.

3. Thus, the importer has incorrectly applied a concessional IGST rate of 12% instead of the applicable 18%. The differential IGST payable works out to ₹920/- on the assessable value of ₹13,806/-. The act of adopting a lower IGST rate under an inapplicable entry, despite a clear distinction in the Notification, constitutes mis-declaration of IGST schedule and results in short-levy of duty.

12. The importer was issued a Pre-Notice Consultative Letter (CL No. 721/23-24 dated 29.12.2023) in accordance with the CBIC's Master Circular on SCN procedure and the Pre-Notice Consultation Regulations, 2018, offering an opportunity to voluntarily pay the short-levied amount along with interest and reduced penalty under Section 28(5) of the Customs Act, 1962. However, no response was received from the importer and no payment was made, indicating deliberate disregard of statutory obligations.

13. In terms of Section 17(1) of the Customs Act, 1962, the importer is required to self-assess duty correctly. Further, under Section 46(4), the importer must make a truthful declaration regarding the particulars of the imported goods. In the present case, by declaring an incorrect IGST entry and claiming lower duty, the importer has contravened these provisions. Therefore, the subject goods are liable for confiscation under Section 111(m) of the Act as the goods do not correspond with the particulars in the Bill of Entry with respect to the correct IGST rate applicable.

14. I find that demand was raised in this regard vide the said Consultative letter 721/23-24 issued vide F. No. S/2-Audit-Gen-33/2023-24/JNCH/E2/CL No.721/23-24 dated 29.12.2023 and subsequent SCN dated 15-10-2024, but stands not objected against by the Importer in view of non-filing of any written submission and non-appearance before the Adjudicating Authority despite Personal Hearings accorded to the importer on 28.07.2025, 04.08.2025 and 11.08.2025. Accordingly, I find that the demand along with allegations made in the SCN stands crystallized and I hold that the allegations made against the Importer are to be upheld. As such, as proposed in the SCN, the duty foregone along with applicable Interest stands recoverable from the Importer. Further, the Importer is also liable to Penalty u/s 114A, 112(a) as proposed in the SCN.

15. I find that the importer, in the present case, has cleared the goods without payment of applicable IGST duty and thus made the goods liable for confiscation under Section 111(m) of the Customs Act, 1962.

16. I also find that the goods imported vide impugned Bills of Entry, are not available for confiscation. I observe that the present case also merits imposition of Redemption Fine under Section-125 of the Customs Act, 1962 despite goods are not available for confiscation.

ORDER

- (i) I reject the self-assessment done by the Importer for the imported goods, and order to re-assess the goods under 123A of Schedule III of Notification No. 01/2017, imported vide BEs No. Mentioned in Table-A by M/s. Paradise Impex(IEC:BQFPS5217P).
- (ii) I confirm the demand of Differential IGST amount of Rs. 920/- (Rupees Nine Hundred Twenty Only) on the impugned goods imported vide Bill of Entry No. as mentioned in Table-A by M/s. Paradise Impex(IEC:BQFPS5217P) under Section 28(8) of the Customs Act, 1962, and order to recover the same from the importer along with applicable interest under Section 28AA of the Customs Act, 1962.
- (iii) I order to confiscate the impugned goods valued Rs. 13,806/- (Rupees Thirteen Thousand Eight Hundred Six Only) under Section 111(m) of the Customs Act, 1962, but since the same are not available as they have already been cleared hence, I impose a redemption fine of Rs. 1,381/- (Rupees One Thousand Three hundred and eighty one Only) under Section 125 of the Customs Act, 1962.
- (iv) I impose penalty equal to the Differential IGST amount as determined at (ii) above; on the Importer under Section 114A of the Customs Act, 1962. However, If the amount of IGST and Interest is paid within thirty days from issuance of this order, the amount of penalty liable to be paid herein shall reduce to twenty-five per cent, provided that the amount of penalty is also paid within thirty days from this order, in view of the proviso to Section 114 of the Act.
- (v) As I have imposed penalty under Section 114A on the importer, no penalty is imposed on the importer under Section 112(a) of the Customs Act, 1962 as per proviso to Section 114A of the Act.

17. This Order is issued without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the noticee and or any other firm(s) or person(s) under the provisions of the Act or any other law for the time being in force in the Union of India.
